LOCKPORT TWP. H.S., LOCKPORT, ILL.

Travel - Many Modes

Webster defines transportation as "systems and modes of conveyance of persons or goods from place to place." Since man first realized that it was easier to ride than walk, he has been finding better and easier ways to travel. Today, with jets, express trains, and streamlined automobiles, man can go anywhere he wishes in a matter of hours.

To us of LTHS, transportation is usually a more down-to-earth problem: How to get to and from school and other activities and events. The 1962 LOCK Staff now gives you a glimpse into our means of TRAVEL — MANY MODES.

Dedication

Because of his devotion to the students of Lockport Township High School, we of the LOCK staff dedicate the 1962 LOCK to Edward Flink, principal and dean of boys.

We'll always remember Mr. Flink's cheery face at the assemblies, where he has taken personal charge of the students' conduct. We thank him for his co-ordination of the school transportation system which fingers into the ninety-nine square miles of Lockport School District. We like that broad grin he has for everyone, no matter how many problems are presented to him.

For his many years of service, we sincerely say, "Thank you, Mr. Flink. You're great!"

the Bridge

Our pilots and skippers have steered Lockport Township High School smoothly and safely through the year '61-'62. It has been a year of growth, progress, and development.

The administration is always guiding us toward a better education. They are preparing each of us to embark on the turbulent sea of life.

The Board of Education, like the sweeping arm of the radar, keeps us on an even keel with the wishes of the community. One of the decisions of the community was to provide better education for the students of the district by building a four year high school on the West side and a two year high school on the East side.

'Aye, aye sir!' we say to you officers in command. We shall strive to help you keep the standard of education high at LTHS, one school or three.

Dr. Blatnik and Mr. Smith confer on the biggest headache of the year — crowded conditions.

Handling curriculum is no easy task, but Mr. Aiken will always do a splendid job.

"Oh what a beautiful morning . . .," Indeed, that's what Mr. Fink's smile says.

Taking a bike ride after a busy school day is GAA president Joyce Cotter

Nino Anzzolin was rewarded for her hard work when she received the DAR Award.

President of FNA, Jane Venckus is always ready with a helping hand and a cheerful smile for her fellow students.

Marian Scheuber, senior editor of the LOCK, participated in many school activities

They Paved

"Well, here goes nothing!" Barbara Drury, capable business manager of the TIMES, tries her skill in skiing

Chuck Clark, president of "L" Club and an all-around athlete, represented LTHS well throughout his high school years

Jeanne Rodeghero, TIMES editor and an active member in other school activities, devoted many hours to the publication of our school newspaper.

the Way

Lorie Geddes, our cheerleading captain, was a familiar figure in many of our school activities.

The smiling face of Richard Schultz, A Cappella Choir president, is a familiar sight to LTMS students.

Merlene Gee, co-editor of the LOCK, spent many hours working to meet deadlines.

Doug Carlson, Student Council Co-president, boards a bus to a swimming meet.

The National Honor Society achieved its many goals under the capable leadership of president Jim Goeke.

Here's a grin that's familiar to every senior. It's that of Mr. Lawrence, Senior Class sponsor.

SPORTS

Queens of the Court

It's cheer leaders Denise Johnson, Darf Gert Damaska, Shirley Gray, Faye Anderson, and Linda Zlogar, as they show off

Miss Evans, the popular and competent sponsor of the cheer

INTRODUCING — Lockport's queens of the court — the basketball court that is. In the gym all eyes turned to these gals as they led the fans in peppy cheers. Likewise, on the football field they made a royal impression in their new maroon bermuda shorts, white sweaters, and white knee socks. This enthusiastic eight practiced under the capable guidance of their sponsor, Miss Evans. Even during those perilous fourth quarters, they kept the banner of school spirit and loyalty flying high to cheer the team on to victory.

Come on, boys! The cheer leaders want some action!

Porter Pep Crew

Neither wind, nor rain, nor sleet, nor snow kept the Lockport fans from cheering for the team. Foremost in the crowd, the Pep Club stood out with extra spirit and vigor. Always prepared, these loyal backers brought blankets and mittens to the football games, and for basketball it was sweatshirts and shakos.

Especially active this year, Pep Club introduced several new ideas, including maroon and white sweatshirts for members only and "make 'em yourself" shakos, which were sold to the whole student body.

Win or lose, the team's spirits stayed high due to the pepsters' loyal backing. With a "Go, team, go!" and "Fight, team, fight!" they supported the boys in their victory fight.

They're here! They're here! The Pep Club sweatshirts have arrived at last!

Responsible for Pep Club's success are Vivian Long, president; Jackie Ward, treasurer; Barb Drury, captain; Jeanne Rodeghero, vice-president; Connie Capista, secretary, and Miss Evans, sponsor.

"Hey! You can't take that ball away from me!" says Karen Abrams to Jackie Abrams. Bonnie Blackwell is also on the court.

Dione Weiler and Janet Maor discover the trouble with tennis as they struggle to make it right.

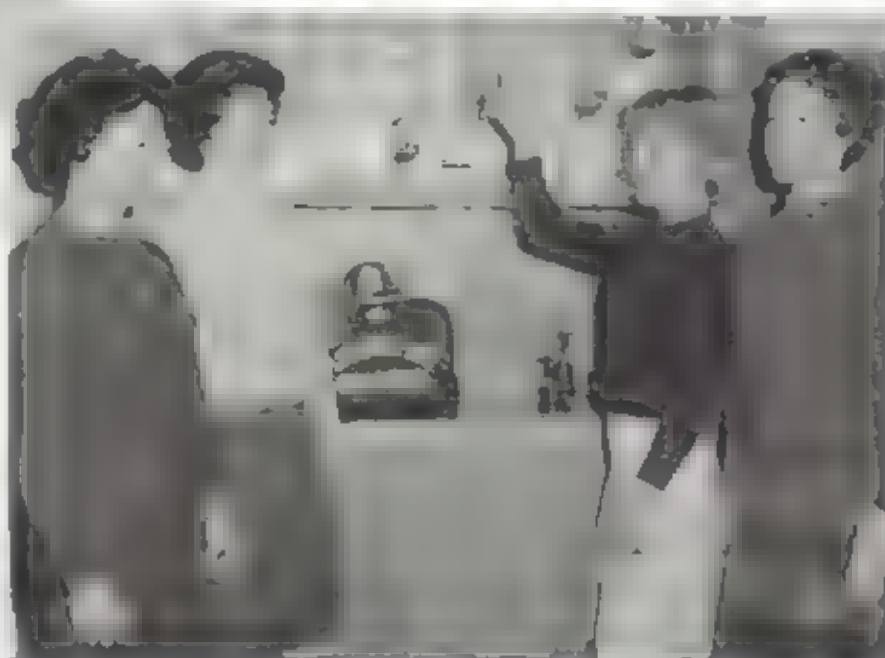

Trust capable bowling secretaries and fundraisers make the work easier for the sponsors. Cherry Farmer, Sharon Southwick, Linda Stockman, Sharon Johnson, Mary King, Grace Haney, Pam Scriber, and Elizabeth King.

GAA - Physical

Follow any peppy lockport girl and you will invariably find yourself in the Girls' Athletic Association. Here, through participation in many sports, girls can gain experience in game play and practice good sportsmanship. Under the supervision of the sponsors, girls can become better acquainted with others and better skilled in sports.

GAA offers a wide variety of activities. Throughout the school year, volleyball, basketball, tennis, bowling, life saving, and golf are scheduled.

The GAA officers for Vol. 62 are Rosemary McGinnis, treasurer, Joyce Cotter, president, Marian Scheiber, vice president, and Linda Jensen, secretary.

Ready and willing to help at any time are the GAA sponsors, Mrs. Firlus, Mrs. Pickering, Miss Chapman, and Miss Olson

Fitness and Fun

Tournaments are held for the champion teams of each class and the all star teams in volleyball and basketball. Ten girls are chosen from the bowling leagues to compete with bowlers from all over the state in the GAA State Telegraphic Bowling Tournament. Through life saving classes offered in the spring, girls may earn both Junior and Senior Life Saving Badges.

Because of its tremendous popularity, GAA is one of the largest organizations at Lockport. It is equally enjoyed by all the classes and plays an important part in school life.

"Somebody help me!" Carl is in a life saving exercise.

"Lorie's all set but where's the ball?" Lorie Geddes demonstrates golf to Merlene Gee.

"Hurry up and take the picture these things are heavy." The State Telegraphic Bowling team, Patti Lapikas, Judy L. Carlson, Joyce Cotter, Sharon Johnson and Gail Torkelson.

Chuck Clark
Most Valuable Player

The 1961 gridiron squad posted Lockport's best season record since 1953 with 6-3-0. Not only the team as a whole demonstrated expert ability, but also many individuals were outstanding. The Porters produced its first all state footballman in Jim Goeke, the number one center in Illinois. Jim copped other honors by being elected to the all suburban and all conference squads. Halfback Chuck Clark was picked "The Most Valuable Player." Breaking the conference record, Chuck scored seventy points by eleven touchdowns and four extra points this season. Halfback Clark, guard Voss, quarterback Fulton, and end Kirk also made the all conference team.

| Bloom           | 7  | 9    |

Filled with the spirit of champions which showed itself thru out the season, the Fresh Soph Porters achieved a 6 w - 2 l record. Charles Dan Seitzberg and Bill Jackson played their men well as a result our gridiron heroes trounced Evergreen Park, Joliet Catholic, Argo and Kankakee in their first four games. Lockport played host to Blue Island and Joliet only to encounter their first two losses. Lockport then invaded powerful Thornton facing them in a slugfest. Our heroes then went on to thrash Thornton and Bloom ending the season in a burst of glory. By their tremendous team effort the "Pipers" held Thornton for second place.

Excellent team spirit and desire. Finest group to work with that we had in football were the remarks that Coach Dan Seitzberg and John Stroble had of their undefeated South Suburban Conference champions. Starting out as a green team the Fortenites went out to win at Lincoln Way, Argo, Naperville and Blue Island. Lockport then was slowed down to a scoreless game against powerful Joliet. Closing out the season by flaring Thornton, our Freshman squad deserves to be watched.

Since Cross Country was begun at Lockport three years ago, Coach Rogers and his harriers have progressed quickly

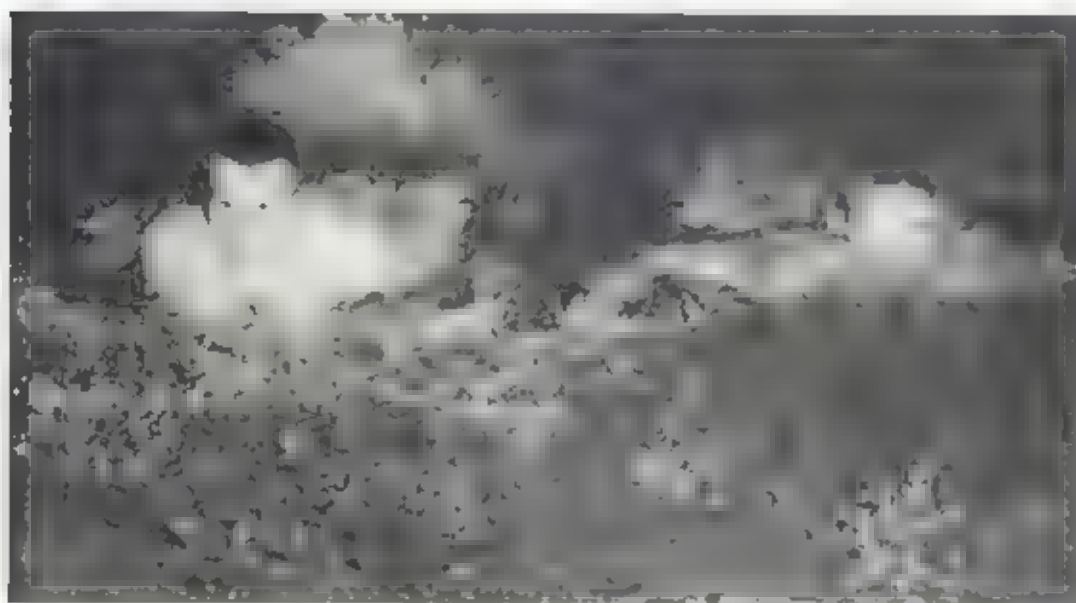

Opening their third season with a tie against Reavis, our Porter harriers posted a 3 win, 9 loss, and 1 tie record. Undaunted after being edged by Morris, the Cross Country squad came back to trounce Argo. Then Kankakee dealt Lockport its second loss, but again Coach Rogers' scappy team came back to crack Carl Sandburg's formidable strength. Later Blue Island, Oaklawn, Joliet, and Thornton were able to down the Porters. Next Lockport's Cross Countrymen overwhelmed Thornridge. The Porter harriers then fell to Bloom and Morris.

To prove their increasing strength the harriers took fifth in a rough South Suburban Conference, and to further boost their season, our Porters placed twelfth in district in a field of twenty two

At the crack of the starter's gun, Jerry Pekar, Jim Peterson, John Lund, and Dennis Jennings leap for the advantage

Swimmers Sting Competitors

Constant practice earned the team a 2 win, 10 loss record

Swimming against some of the strongest teams in the state, the Porter tankmen posted a 2 win, 10 loss record. Although the swimmers lacked depth to win meets, individual honors were great. On the varsity squad senior Doug Carlson set a faster time for the 100 yd. backstroke, and junior Jim Peterson broke the record for the 160 yd. and 200 yd. individual medley.

On the frosh-soph team Jim Hemphill set new records for the 40 yd. backstroke and 80 yd. individual medley while Roy Fleet tied Andy Djerf's mark for the 40 yd. free style. To add to this accomplishment, the frosh-soph team posted a 6 win, 6 loss record.

Grapplers Pin

With a combination of brains, brawn, and Coach Zimmer's guidance, the 1961-62 Porter grapplers posted their best record, 8 wins and 3 losses in many years. To further boost their season, the LTHS matmen took fourth in the SSL and second in the district meets. Elected by their teammates, the most valuable wrestlers were Jim Rumchak and Jerry Genge. Jim and Jerry, both seniors, have compiled outstanding victories during their tenure at Lockport.

Two other senior wrestlers who have added power to the LTHS wrestling team are Vernon Voss and Bill Rumchak. Voss, in his three years of varsity wrestling, has compiled a tremendous 67 wins, 7 losses and 2 ties record. In addition to these fine seasons, Voss has capped a first and second in District meets, two firsts in Sectional matches, and a second and fourth in State competition.

The LOCK staff would like to salute Coach Bill Zimmer and assistant Coach Mel Deskin for the outstanding job they have done at Lockport, and we hope they continue to bring wrestling laurels to Lockport for many years to come.

Jim Rumchak sets up his swift takedown.

Cagers Capture 16-11

In every game these hustling Porter basketball managers prove their value in compiling statistics. In this picture they are checking their data for Coach Connors. Standing, with a protective look in his eye, is Head Manager Mike Morse. Those seated are Jim Malay, Joe Lawson, Bob Alexander, Jim Santrelli and Joe O'Brien.

The Lockport Porters, guided by Mentor Bill Connors, found their own this year as they rolled up a 16-11 season. The hoopsters can contribute their success to a hustling defense, a sharp shooting offense, and Coach Connors' expert team handling.

Our spirited basketball quintet jumped off to four straight wins and it seemed that they were unbeatable until they fell to rugged Konkakee in a slow, tough game. Shaking off their one defeat the undaunted Porters went on to win the Naperville Holiday Tournament and to take fourth place in the Pontiac Tourney.

The remainder of the year had its ups and downs — but mostly it had its ups. When the final whistle blew in the last conference game with Bloom of Chicago Heights, the Porters held a respectable 7-7 conference record, good enough for fifth place in the SS.

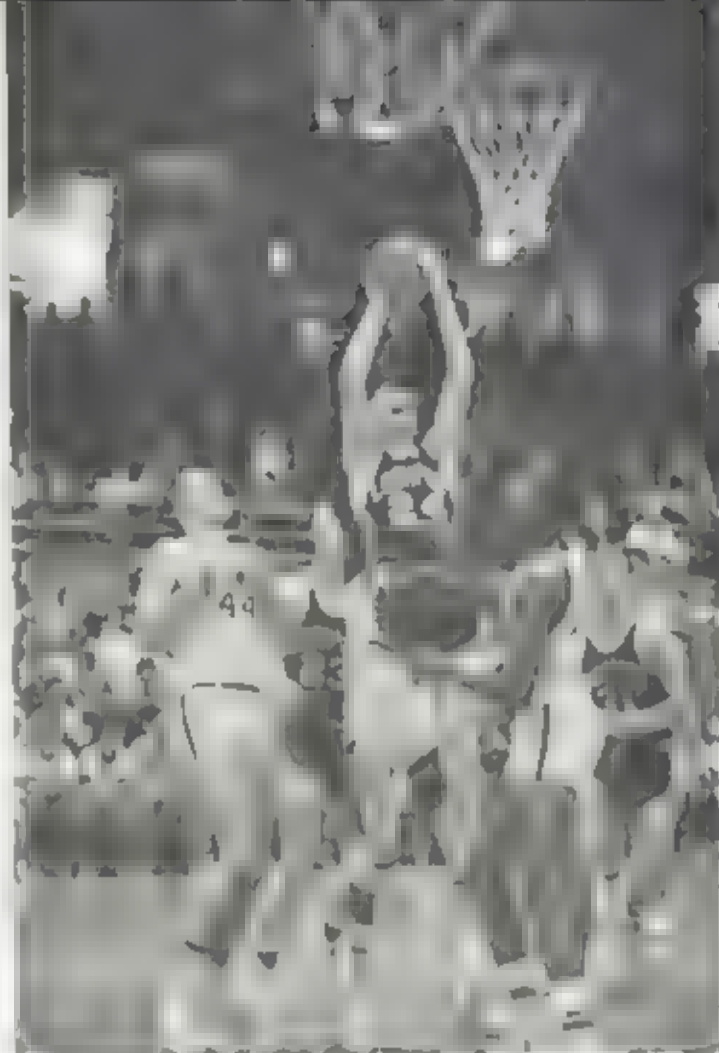

To end the year the powerful Porters started on the State Tournament trail at the Bloom Regional. After winning its first game against Peatone, the team lost to Rich by one point in the closing seconds of a hard fought game.

The 1961-62 basketball season will not soon be forgotten at LTHS because of the immense excitement our team provided for its fans and because of the unequalled sportsmanship our team displayed on the court.

1962 proved to be a lean year for the Porter trackmen as they failed to win a single meet. One of the few bright spots of the season came when Doug Carlson set a new school record in the mile run

To round out the year the never-say-die cindersmen took fourth in the annual Will County track meet, seventh place in the South Suburban Conference encounter, and sixteenth in the District clash

Head coach William Jackson and his assistant coaches, Edward Cisler and Bill Richardson, hope next year to give LTHS a winning season, and the LOCK wishes to offer their hope for a successful year

To carry on LTHS' magnificent baseball tradition, the Porter diamond-men again brought fame and honor to Lockport. Although this was not the most powerful team in LTHS history, it did, however, make up for its power loss in hustle and determination. Every Lockport fan agreed that the Porter nine gave its all both on offense and defense.

For the fifth consecutive year Lockport won the District Tourney, first step in the State Tournament. After winning their first game in the regional by beating Oak Lawn, 5-4, the Porters lost to Lions of La Grange 9-10 in a slugfest.

When the final South Suburban Conference standings were released, the Porters ended up in record place with a 5-2 conference record.

"Come on Myron, be a hitter!" yells Coach Sertberg, a familiar sight to LTHS baseball fans.

Hurlers Hit Headlines

Chuck Ballantine

Don Lemmon

Jim Goeke

These three pitchers provided much of Lockport's strength this season. Chuck Ballantine, in addition to having a 5-2 record, pitched a no-hitter against Argo. Jim Goeke (5-2) and Don Lemmon (1-2, also combined for a no-hitter against Aurora. Ballantine will return next year along with Ray Ryan who won one game this year.

Linksters in the Limelight

Cougar Ed Hill's varsity golf squad comprised this year's team. Their record was one and five losses and one tie. This proves to be the best record ever achieved by a team. This season

In the District Tourney first leg at the State Tournament at Port Townsend first leg, the varsity team makes it and the year the greensmen played the game at the State Tournament. The future of this team looks very bright because all the members of the squad will return next year to improve their outstanding record.

Number one man Al Langley takes to the net to score on his opponent.

George Nordstrom hits a forehand drive as his partner Bill Ott watches on. There are two of the three seniors on the team.

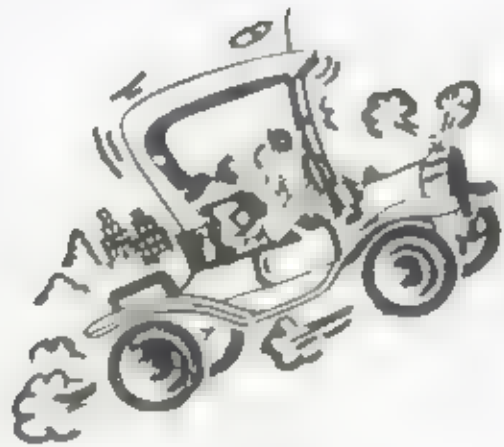

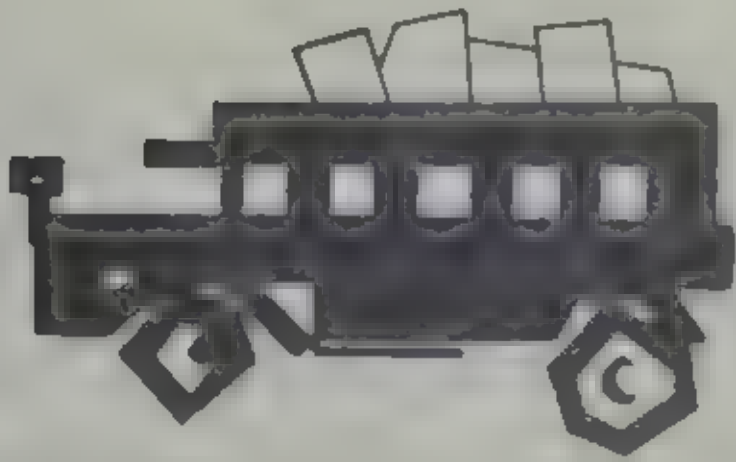

Twenty-two athletes answered the call, "Tennis anyone?" to make up one of the largest tennis squads in LTHS's history. Size wasn't everything, however, as the varsity bounced 0-11, and the frosh-soph followed with 1-10. The outlook is good as some underclassmen look promising and only three varsity members graduated.

Al Zanzola, a senior, serves to his opponent in a tight match.

Light hearts keep everyone dancing until the last echoes of music had died away

In the elegant setting of the Chantilly Room of D'Amico's 214, training rules were temporarily forgotten when the Letterman, coaches, and the r dates attended the First Annual L Club Dinner-Dance. This gala affair, held on the 13th of April, began with a delicious dinner, followed by dancing to the music of Bill Carnegie and his orchestra

The balcony overlooking the patio and fountain was a popular spot for those couples who were not dancing. In fact, the pennies which rained down put those around the fountain in real danger. All these wishes must certainly have been granted, because it was one of the most enjoyed occasions of the year

Do secret codes arouse your interest and let out the adventure in you? The Future Business Leaders of America (written out in shorthand by) anticipate this adventure as they prepare for their career in business.

For the past few years the FBLA's main project has been the compiling and revising of the Porter Key, a handbook prepared for the benefit of the students and teachers. It contains information on the writing of all formal writing and punctuation.

Helpful topics such as telephone technique, correct grooming on the job, and interviews for employment were all a part of the FBLA's meetings. Films, panels, and lectures pertaining to these subjects were also given.

If enthusiasm is any success, these future business leaders are sure to travel far.

Bev Miller, FBLA bulletin board chairman, gets assistance from Mary Beth Piper and Louise Wawczak in keeping the bulletin board up to date.

Mrs. Manwaring and her smiling officers: Marilyn Hudek, president; Linda Sandbloom, vice-president; Judy Taposki, secretary; and Judy L. Carlson, treasurer, keep the FBLA running smoothly.

As Kathy Bennett, Secretary, and Julie Venckus, Vice-president, pack their "care packages" with caution, Charlene Giardina, President, Miss Dibenardo, JRC sponsor, and Kathy Bergseth, Treasurer, work on another JRC project.

Helping Hand

The Junior Red Cross is not all bandages and splints. The members, elected from each homeroom, initiated many worthwhile projects during the year. They provided programs at each home football game, and kept a scrapbook of many memorable events. They also sent money to an unfortunate high school foreign exchange student, prepared outcups for the general wards at the hospital, and sent care packages overseas. These packages contained soap, crayons, combs, and pencils donated by the different classes.

A membership drive was held at the beginning of the year to promote interest in the student body. After a busy week of recruiting, the organization was under way.

Miss Dibenardo, the Junior Red Cross sponsor, has guided the members through a very successful year.

Reel-Spinners, Real Help!

A busy group of LTHS students who are trained to give "reel" assistance to teachers are the Projectionist Club members.

This organization under the direction of Mr. Paul Jorgenson, Industrial Arts instructor, has their headquarters in Room 207. During the day there are always members of the club on duty ready to give assistance wherever needed. Setting up, taking down, and operating projectors are the main functions of the Projectionists.

Filmstrips are used in almost every subject, so the service these students render is a vital one and is much appreciated.

"Heh! What should I say fellows," says Donald O'Connor, treasurer, to Steve Potter, president, and John Hallis, vice-president.

Rarin' to go are these projectionist fellows.

Your Move

Chess, one of the oldest games in the world, was introduced at Lockport under the sponsorship of Mr. Beseman. The club, having a membership of about fifteen persons, meets in the school library twice a month. Most of the members are boys, but once in a while a girl isn't afraid to pit her mind against theirs. So, if you like a good "thinking" game, join the Chess Club.

"What's that you said?" asks Linda Sandstrom to Paul Gard as Martha Svendsen and Dave Morrison look on.

Think you've got some hidden talent for dramatics? Why not join the Forensic Speech Organization, and find out? You may discover that you aren't exactly Academy Award material, but your efforts may pay off in the end.

The members use their talents in a variety of ways. Some act in the school plays, others prefer public speaking, and still others speak over the radio. At the bi-weekly meetings, Mrs. Richardson and Mr. Tipler, sponsors, devote much of their time to helping the members with their present activity.

The organization was proud of the member who placed first in the American Legion Oratorical Contest held at Manhattan on December tenth. As a result, many more participated in the contest held at Lockport.

Who knows, someday the efforts of the members may pay off when one of them receives an Oscar.

The combination of meaningful gestures and a powerful speech brought Becky White first place in the American Legion Oratorical contest.

Hollywood Bound

"That's right, Paul, use your hands more," says Miss Johnson, student teacher to Paul Gard.

Dan LeGrand and Rich Schultz are determined to "hit that high note" as they practice for their trip to McCormick Place.

M is for music, maestro, Maids, and Madrigals ... Lockport's lively singers that delighted audiences wherever they went.

Hear ye! Hear ye! And everyone heard ... heard the Lockport chorus giving voice to lovely Christmas Carols. Young and old heard the wonderful Christmas Story told through music.

The Lockport chorus has brought pleasure to many, when it has performed at an event held in the city. The chorus was so well presented that it gave birth to a new appreciation of music.

The route to McCormick Place in Chicago was the path of honor for Dan LeGrand and Richard Schultz, for they appeared there as two of the two hundred best high school vocalists in Illinois. Long after they have left Lockport to sing along with someone else, they will remember their joy and pride in achieving this wonderful goal!

We planned we packed we played and we returned a very proud band. The glad tidings finally arrived that the Lockport Township High School Band had been chosen to represent the state at bands at the Music March festival at Mason City, Iowa. The members of the band worked like beavers preparing themselves for this nation-wide marching contest.

The senior band members will have fond memories of their last year because many wonderful things happened during 1961-1962. They began by capturing first place and top honors in the Tournament of Music at Riverview Amusement Park.

On March 4th the band entertained the public at their 29th annual spring concert, "On to Mason City."

Brigadoon

At the fair Meg Brockie tries to sell the finest cream that ever came out of a cow

Don't you see Jeff?

Tommy wally attempts to explain his feelings toward Fong

In the highlands, the bonnie, bonnie highlands, there is the village of Brigadoon. Tommy Albright and Jeff Douglas, two Americans on a hunting expedition, soon discover that this is no ordinary village. Brigadoon is not on the map; the people wear strange clothes; no Brigadoon villager ever heard of our modern conveniences, and the dates in the MacLaren family Bible are not of the present century.

Brigadoon is the result of a miracle. Mr. Forsythe, "whose one desire and ambition was to protect the folk of his parish from the evil influences of the witches of the outside world," prayed to God for this phenomenon. Someone of the outside world can live in Brigadoon provided that he is in love with one of the villagers and believes in the miracle.

This highly successful musical was presented by the choral department under the direction of Mr. Mientz and Charlene Giardina, student director, on April 6, 1962.

Mr. Lundie relates the tale of the miracle to his attentive listeners. Fiona, Tommy, and Jeff.

"The Great Big Doorstep"

"It's just like dress rehearsal except that the seats are filled!" Cheryl Farmer assures the cast

The curtain opened to a Southern drawl and the strum of a guitar on November 16 and 17 when the Juniors presented their play, "The Great Big Doorstep." This rollicking comedy was complete with a shady character, a stabbing, and even bouncing checks.

It all started when a beautiful doorstep floated down the Mississippi to the Crochet's miserable home. After this stroke of fortune, Mr. Crochet, a "drainage expert" or ditchdigger, decided to find a house for his family equal to their doorstep. The following hour was filled with his hilarious attempts to get a house and the adventures of his unusual family.

The entire audience was laughing long after the curtain closed on this delightful play of rags to riches. The cast under the direction of Rena Greppes, student director, with Mrs. Richardson and Mr. Tipler as faculty advisers, was justly proud of a fine performance.

"Music hath charms to soothe the savage beast" Kathy Bergseth soothes Carl Michaelsen and Sue Latocha.

And I had to tell her that that Nancy Jensen was my only sister!" says George Nordstrom to Karen Bohling and Paul Gord

Little bit of powder, little bit of paint makes the Senior cast look like what it is!

"Seventeen"

Oh, the trials of young love! The Seniors chose a very appropriate subject when they presented "Seventeen." The play, taken from Booth Tarkington's novel, portrays the problems and pains in the life of a seventeen-year-old boy.

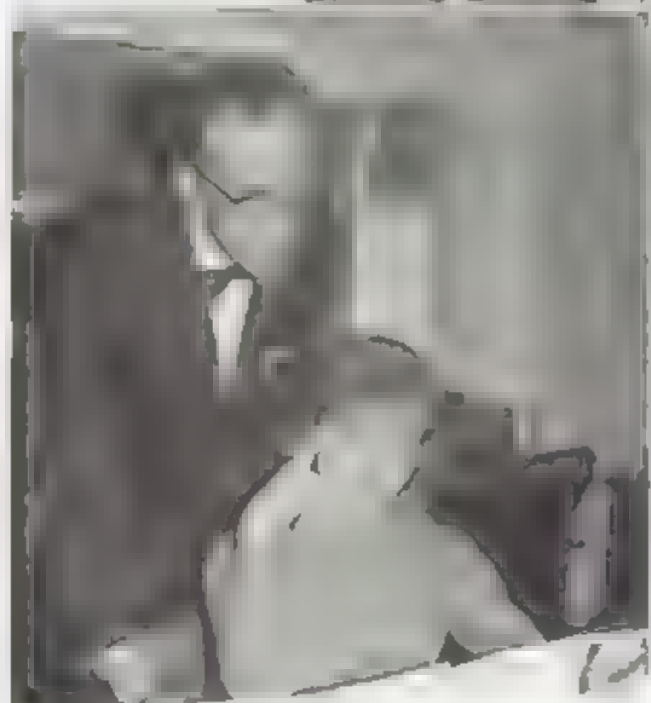

With the arrival of Lola, a southern beauty, the ordinary life of Willie Baxter was turned upside-down. His only ambition in life became winning her heart, and he would let nothing stand in his way. Even the lack of a tuxedo was surmountable when he made up his mind. Although he tried his best, his charms were far surpassed by those of a college man with a car, and Willie returned to earth with a thud.

As last year, the class of '62 scored a great success and were happy with the results. The play was directed by Mr. Tipler, Miss Johnson, a student teacher, and Joyce Cotter, the student director. Everyone involved was proud of the production and had the time of his life in the process.

Anne Murrie, Carolyn Schmitz and Rosemary McGinnis are eagerly waiting to "peddle their papers" as they receive them from Rachael Grant.

Jeanne Rodeghero, Editor-in-Chief, and Mr. Ennis, sponsor, are engrossed in their finished product.

"Times" Goes

When's my deadline? ... Where's my article? ... What should we use for a headline? ... Will we ever finish in time?

These are some haunting phrases which will bring back memories to the eager "Times" staff members. With the help of Mr. Ennis, "Times" sponsor, and all the members of the staff, the monthly papers were a big success.

EDITORIAL STAFF FIRST ROW Bev Partak, Rosemary McGinnis, Carolyn Schmitz, Mariellen Resler, Donna Lof, Annamarie Goreck, Susan Harland, Lois Ward, Lorie Gerdner. The paper's out and Chen Backholdt, Assistant Business Manager, Bob Kryzak, Photographer, and Sharon Johnson, Typing Editor, are relaxing until the editing of the next issue begins.

During a busy day at school, Judy Wilking takes time to sell a "Times" subscription to Marlene Gee.

"Who says it doesn't pay to advertise?" says Ron Miller, Advertising Manager, to Bob Drury, Business Manager.

Marching on

The "Halloween Hop," which took place on October twenty-eight, was the "Times" main project. That night the gym was haunted by ghostly spirits that gathered about a huge pumpkin scarecrow.

Now it's all in the past, deadlines were met . . . articles were found . . . headlines were thought of . . . and everything was finished on time.

Ticket to Memories

Who is always on the move, looking hopefully to the future? Why the LOCK staff, of course. Each year this group sells its priceless ticket to the memories of the past school year.

With much effort the editorial staff takes pictures, plans layouts, and thinks of clever captions, copy, and running heads. Serving as the depot, the LOCK room is the center of this ever busy system. After school, as well as on Saturdays, this room buzzes with the commotion of workers trying to get their assignments finished.

In charge of financial affairs is the business staff, who also transports the yearbook to the students. Because the LOCK staff pays the difference on the yearbooks, money must be raised by sponsoring dances after home games and the special Homecoming Dance.

The conductor of this depot is the ready, willing, and able sponsor, Mr. Sampson. Both he and the staff members devote much time and patience to produce a satisfactory yearbook. Upon finishing a job, the staff may be commended for a job well done.

impressive? Sure, but for eighteen seniors, that, two years, and eight applications, it was a big task to keep the new friends until that big day.

The active chapter watched the new inductees with fond memories of their own induction. Thinking of the past year's visions of both work and fun. Now, at the end of a successful year, the members could be proud of their accomplishments. The year's project had been a success. The chapter had helped the PTA and other adult organizations that were active in the school referendum had passed. PTA attendance had risen. The active members had indeed displayed the LEADERSHIP, CHARACTER, and SERVICE for which they had been honored. Each active member had fulfilled his pledge to the National Honor Society — "striving in every way to make its members those of my school and of my life."

"You? FIFTH helping, Joe?" inquires Marianne Legan at the reception in the cafeteria after the induction ceremony.

"A job well done," replies Mrs. Mitzit to the NHS officers as they start for home. Jim Goeke, president, Charlene Giordano, secretary, Mrs. Mitzit, sponsor, Doug Carlson, vice-president, Richard Schultz, treasurer.

Homecoming

Floats, parade, queen, dance, victory — all these combined to make the Homecoming of 1961 a great success. As the clock tolled 2 p.m., on Friday, October 13th, students, faculty, returning alumni, and townspeople gathered to view the annual parade

An old battered car, representing Blue Island, was a new addition to the parade this year. At the pep assembly following the parade, LTHS students were encouraged to take a whack at the car with a sledge hammer to "Bash Blue Island In"

of imitating the boys

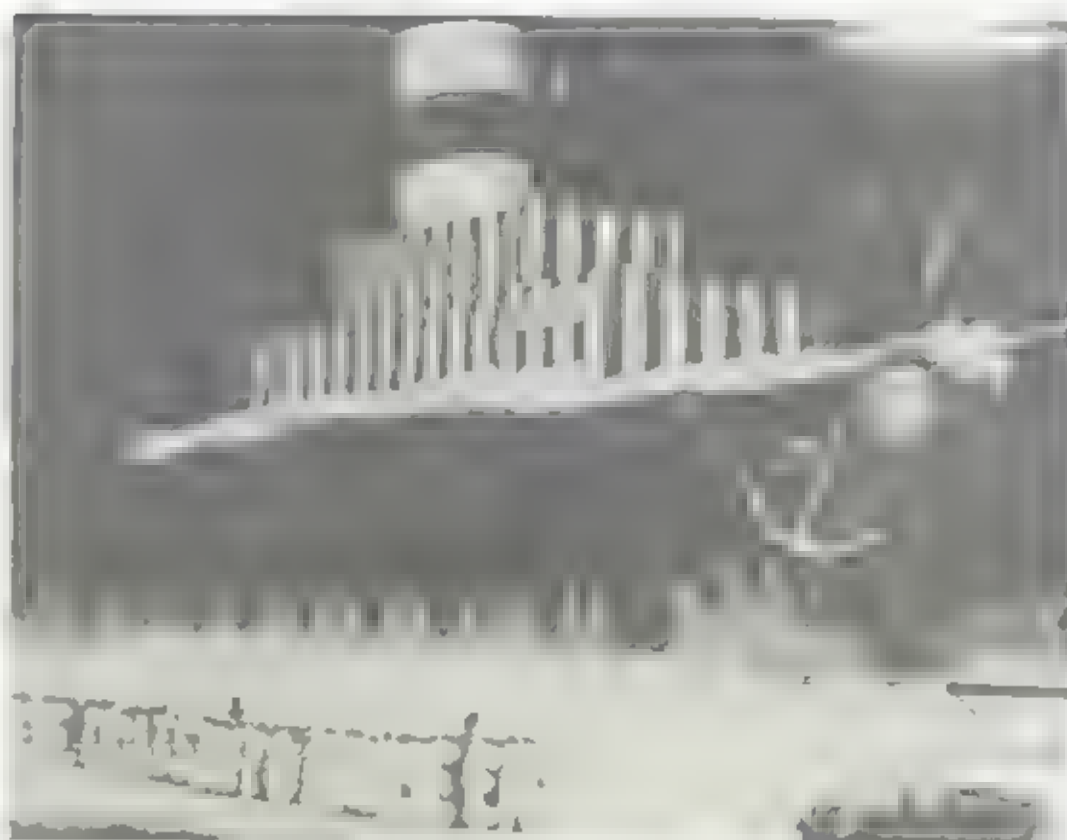

As usual, the Lockport High School Band presented an enjoyable show

1961

Once again the Senior Class produced the winning float, "We're Crus'en to Bruise'em," while the FBLA's walking unit literally walked away with, "We're the Type to Win"

To climax the day the Porters downed the Blue Island Cardinals 25 to 13. This contributed to making the 1961 Homecoming the best ever

Enthusiastic students plus hard work equaled another success for the Seniors

"Gee, Ken," whispers Viv, "can this really be true? It's all so wonderful!"

This year the Homecoming halftime festivities were in the capable hands of the Letterman's Club. After the enthusiastic crowd had observed the floats as they circled the field, the Homecoming Queen, Vivian Long, was presented with two dozen roses, and her attendants were introduced and given nosegays.

The LTHS gym, the scene for the Victory Dance, was cleverly transformed into a football game. This was achieved by the effect of the footballs, football players, and cheerleaders. Nothing could have been more appropriate for a Victory Dance.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Queen Vivian and King Ken. After presenting the court and their escorts, the royal couple then waltzed to the special coronation dance. The Chessmen Band provided the music for the evening's entertainment.

GO-GO-fight-fight
WIN! TEAM! WIN!

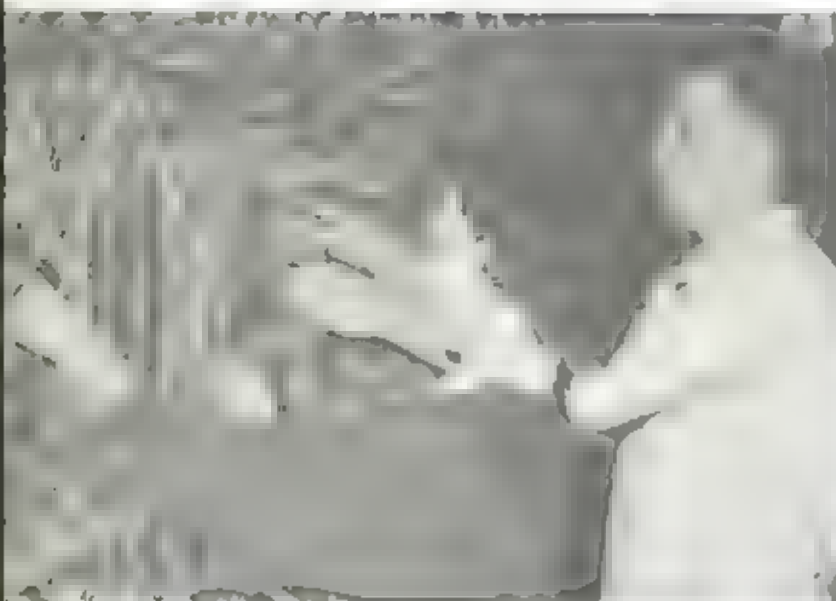

Let's see. If I put this here and this there, I ought to have an arm.

Linda Larsen is a little doubtful that Marsha Schulz will hit the nail

Wintertime Dreamland

"Whoever thought of putting letters on Christmas trees anyway!" mumbles Randy Thomas to Jean Marietta

King Fred Mumough and Queen Sandy Margentina smile happy as they reign over the Christmas Dance

The happy expressions on these students faces show the enjoyment "Wintertime Dreamland" provided

For several weeks before Christmas, the Lockport Township High School Music Department worked diligently on plans for their annual Christmas dance, "Wintertime Dreamland." Finally, on the evening of December 26th, the gym was transformed into a wonderland of snow and Christmas trees. The soft music of Gene Victor's Orchestra created a dreamy holiday atmosphere

A highlight of the evening was the crowning of the king and queen. After being crowned, the couple lead the grand march through the gayly decorated gym

All too soon the evening came to an end, but those who attended the dance will always keep the many memories of "Wintertime Dreamland."

Al Zanzato, Nino Anzzolin, Julie Venckus, and Jim Ludwig are hoping for nice presents from Santa

Cupid's Caper

On the evening of February 17, 1962 it was evident that Cupid had found a way to many students' hearts. Shown on the students' faces were expressions of ecstasy, only Cupid could have sent. Walking down to the cafeteria the couples passed under an immense white heart into a wonderland of hearts and cupids.

The cafeteria was filled with enchanting melodies from the Don Adams Orchestra. A favorite spot for many fatigued and famished dancers was the small cafe where the dancers could be refreshed.

Climaxing the evening was the coronation of the king and queen. After a flurry of excitement and pleasure the royal couple danced to the strains of the Coronation Dance.

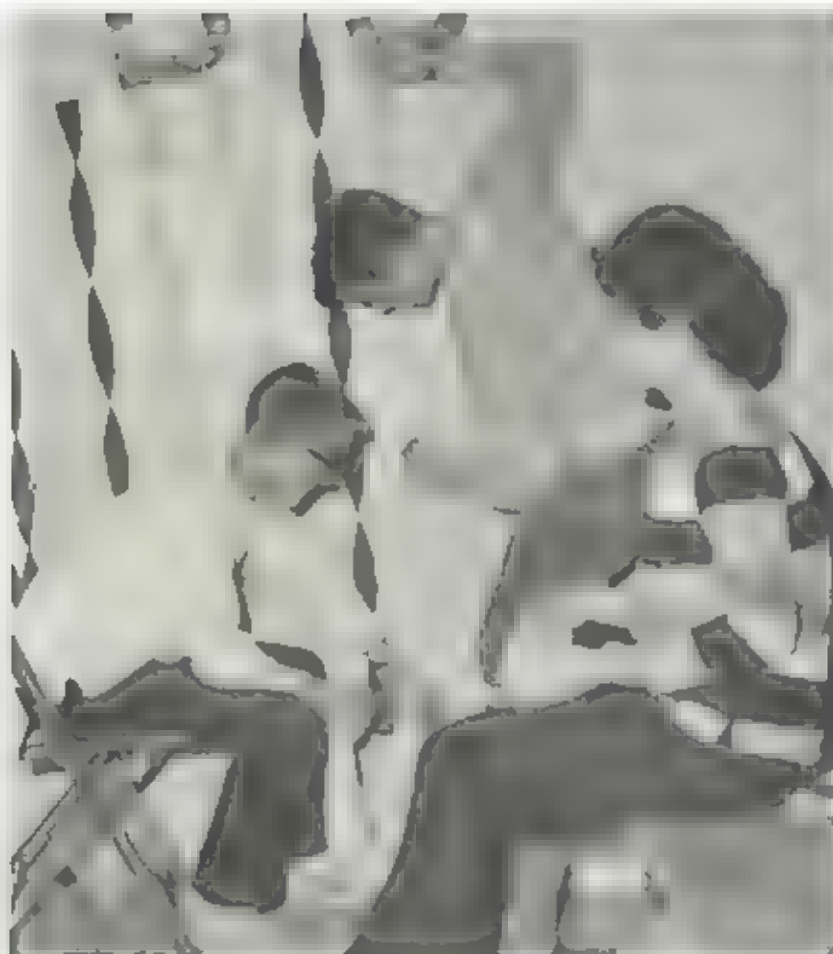

Because of the Student Council's hard work, "Cupid's Caper" was a sweetheart of a dance.

"Well, why don't we go together to the White Fence Farm?" says Dennis Mesinger and his date, Judy Kravich, to Barb Johnson and Marvin Ruck.

"And now may we have a few words from Queen Barb Drury and King Steve Potter?" asks the Student Council co-presidents.

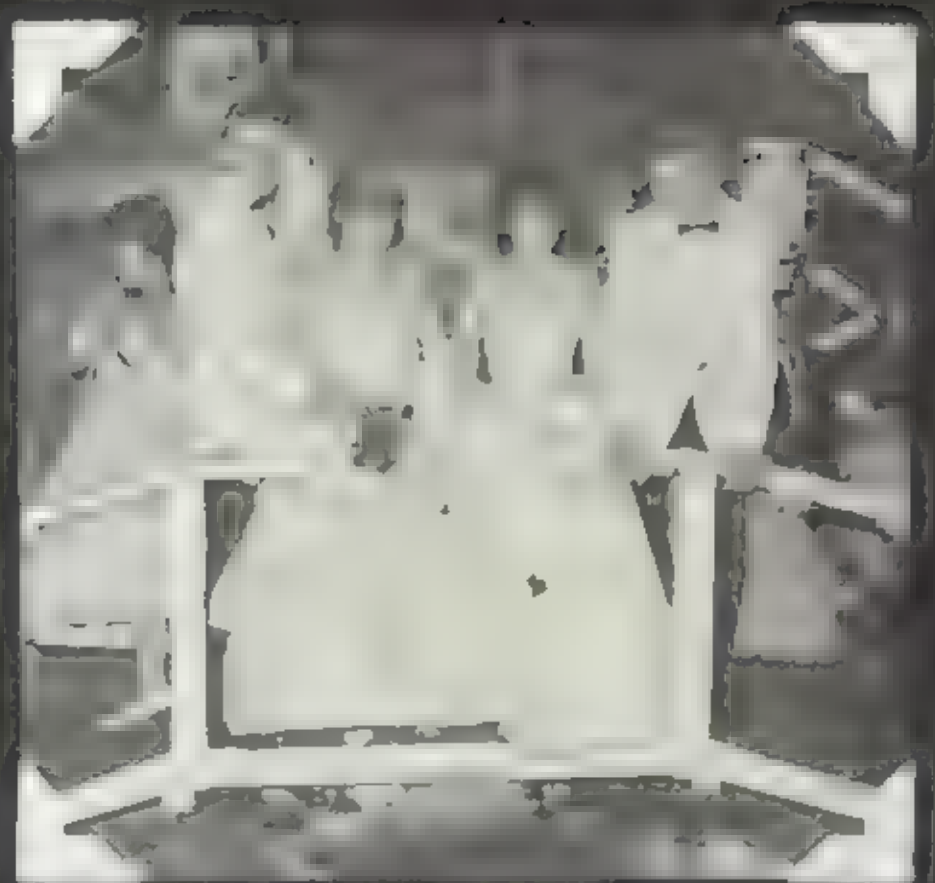

"No, you need this paper in that spot," says Kathy Sharp to Bob Marton and Tom Pinn.

One can tell by these couples that Cupid was busy at this dance.

TO THE SENIORS

This lovely night soon will end,
 And with it lovely thoughts we'll send,
 For with it ends our carefree ways,
 Fond memories of High School days,
 And as we say "Good-bye" tonight,
 We feel "Good-bye" is not quite right,
 We're very glad to know you
 We'll miss you when you're gone
 And to you, the Class of '62

Graduation

C O N C L U S I O N

Realizing our responsibilities as American citizens, we shall strive to strengthen our country, preserve our democracy. We shall use our knowledge and talents to make America a worthy example to the world to follow. We shall try to be unselfish and understanding, to get along with other races and nations. By contributing to our country, we shall promote peace and brotherhood. May we, the class of 1962, make the best use of the training and guidance received at Lockport Township High School.

At last, it was time to hand back the caps and gowns.
